Part II. Activities and Operational Information - Question 1

Activities

The Light Millennium, Inc. (the “Organization”) is dedicated to the following activities:

- a) To provide an international platform for the freedom of expression of ideas and experiences in order to foster a global connection among all people;
- b) To engender harmony and synergy among the nations of the world, including but not limited to, synergy between Turkey and Greece;
- c) To promote social welfare for the people of Turkey, Greece and the United States;
- d) To conduct research, compile and publish information concerning art, music, literature, and ideas, including, but not limited to, ideas about the future;
- e) To provide a medium for the exchange of ideas for the purposes of facilitating transmission, exchange and communication of information;
- f) To promote the theory and practice of the principles of good government and good citizenship;
- g) To unite individuals in the bonds of friendship, good fellowship and mutual understanding; and
- h) To provide a forum for the full and free discussion of all matters of public interest, partisan politics and sectarian religion alone excepted.

The Organization’s Primary Activities are:

- a) Producing, researching, publishing and broadcasting in English, Turkish and any other languages for which translators are available.
- b) On various mediums such as;
 - i. The Internet (www.lightmillennium.org);
 - ii. Cable television and satellite platforms for television projects, including documentaries on art and social issues through available public access facilities.

- iii. Film: Producing feature films on freedom of expression, future or consciousness, such as, FM-2030's 'suspension until the year 2030', an inspiration from Arthur C. Clarke's book or 'from Socrates to Sheik Bedreddin & Nazim Hikmet' in the frame of 'freedom of expression' concept.
 - iv. To open an avenue for people to help and encourage them to think about their experiences and life itself rather than their daily life sanctions or their daily life burdens, by encouraging them to focus and express their ideas in written form or visual or a combination of both mediums. This approach applies to the Light Millennium e-magazine, The Light Millennium TV series and Turkish & Greek Synergy, which is an existing platform and avenue for the Light Millennium, Inc., at this moment.
- c) We also plan to set up the Light Millennium's ON-LINE discussion platform monthly, where one or two concepts/quotes or 2 or 3 questions will be selected by the Board of Directors and suggested ideas by the participants. Whoever wishes to be on the organization's on-line platform will be able to freely and openly post their submissions. This approach also applies in a very similar structure to the e-magazine and the Turkish & Greek Synergy platform.
 - d) What will the organization accomplish with the on-line platform? The organization will be able to establish and create a newly interactive on-line platform under The Light Millennium, Inc. which will be an ongoing discussion platform/forum in order to keep the interactivity, the connection, to help participants to think on given concepts and again propose, invite and persuade every generation, different cultural and ethnic groups to a diversity platform with their ideas and visions (depending upon the available language, currently are able to e-publish in English and Turkish).
 - e) The organization will not limit the expression of ideas, except political campaigning and the promotion of war.
 - f) The organization has been inviting and encouraging potential participants who we are able to reach as a first time participants on its global e-platform.
 - g) At the end of each month, all submissions will be re-evaluated and edited before publication as a whole or one concept/text, on The Light Millennium's e-platform under the ON-LINE DISCUSSION link (which will be created when we are able to find someone as a Moderator for the discussion platform and when we are financially set) and also depending on the sponsorship, we plan to compile the submissions in the form of a book every year or every other year as a selection from the ON-LINE DISCUSSIONS group.

- h) We also plan to publish yearly or every other year a selection of articles, interviews, poems and/or artworks which were first published on the Light Millennium e-magazine platform supporting the main concept and aim of the organization.
- i) Organizing various cultural activities such as;
 - i. Symposia
 - ii. International Art Exhibitions
 - iii. Art Festivals and Concerts
 - iv. Film & Documentary Festivals
 - v. Fundraising Events

To promote the organization's aim to achieve recognition, we will be planning various events free of charge. These types of events will be announced in a new issue, anniversary issue, or upon accomplishing a new step regarding our mission. Thus, we will also organize a "press conference," "cultural gathering," "poetry reading," "a panel discussion or seminar," "documentary screening," a symposia or tribute events.

On May 2, 2002, an event was held for renowned Turkish poet Nazim Hikmet's 100th Birthday as selected poems of Nazim Hikmet and a short biography of his life were read by participants of the event, sponsored by Federation of Turkish American Associations, Inc. based in New York (free of charge). The Federation provided the logistic support, such as location and general expenses, and The Light Millennium, Inc. was responsible for organizing the content of the event. (UNESCO internationally announced that the year 2002 is a celebration of Nazim Hikmet's 100th Birthday.)

The organization's goals are to encourage people to think about their experiences, focus on writing them to express their ideas related to their own interest area, or to share a common happiness or unhappiness and learn from each others experiences and to understand different cultures, religion and ethnic groups so that we can create better harmony and diverse platforms.

The organization is not aiming to structure itself as a school but rather to freely and completely provide an electronic platform or printed forum to create a global platform to invite everyone who has access to the web, to connect with each other. Therefore, we aim to educate people in different levels than any form of school understanding because we will be teaching each other, we will learn from each other as well as think, write, express and share ideas with each other. We can help each other to come up with a sentence which may give courage or positive strength to others, or a photo or artwork or an article to inspire others to transform their experiences into an intellectual product. As a result, the participants have a platform to identify themselves and to present their ideas, experiences and to express themselves. We also aim to persuade young generations to bring their imaginations, expectations or skill onto the platform along with adult perspectives.

The Light Millennium, Inc.'s concept and purpose is to activate the ON-LINE discussion platform and seek sponsorship for print-publications from the existing platforms... The given facts are examples of the organizations activities for the "public interest" purpose, however, it is not limited only within the existing ones.

The organization's sole purposes deal with these ongoing projects as well as near and future projects which are purely for the "public interest" in that they help humanity grow intellectually, rather than have people lose their experiences, ideas, memories, and expectations of the world. Thus, we have been creating a common consciousness of our time, and making it available on our web site with each new issue as well as with the 'Archive' link, globally. Furthermore, we will continue to increase and enhance it with each new issue and different languages which will be included as our 'common consciousness' for current research and study, as well as for future generations.

The Light Millennium, Inc. is involved in producing and publishing an e-magazine. The Light Millennium's TV series broadcasts at the Queens Public Television on channel 34 on Mondays and channel 35 on Thursdays, and we introduced the Turkish and Greek Synergy web site in October 2001.

These are the existing platforms and the organization serves its above mission and purpose for the public interest in order to foster global harmony, to build up better ideas for tomorrow and for our children, as well as enhance our visions:

- a) To provide an Internet, TV and in print form, still or moving images, and audio-video platform, where individuals from all walks of life (professional or non professional, young or old), are encouraged to contribute and submit their work and to express their ideas, commentaries, expectations, and to identify themselves.
- b) To invite all interested individuals to produce their ideas and exchange and share their commentaries, to share a common vision to better human conditions and create a better communication system between them.

Selected submissions will be published from time to time (depending on the sponsorship or the contributions for the Light Millennium, Inc.) in the form of a book; in terms of exchanging, compiling all the various ideas, experiences, expectations and dreams, and to be able to leave these publications for the future generations.

Accordingly, The Light Millennium does not and will not ask for money from any of its participants to produce, publish or broadcast their ideas, visions, visual concepts or projects. The Light Millennium also will not charge any subscription or membership or maintenance fee.
